July's Vendor of the Month is Mary Ellen Loss

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, Rochester, N.Y –

Mary Ellen Loss of Avon is the recipient of July's Summit Vendor of the Month award at the City of Rochester Public Market.

Mary Ellen is no greenhorn to agriculture, having grown up farming and, as a nonagenarian, running farms in Lima and Avon with her husband for approximately 75 years. A Market stalwart for the past 40 years, Mary Ellen, with the help of her son, Peter, sells lots of sweet corn and a range of vegetables from squash and tomatoes to pumpkins and peppers. Their farm in Avon also raises beef cattle and harvests hay. Peter and his family have recently taken the helm of the farm's operations.

"The Market is a great place," says Mary Ellen. "Lots of nice people and nice vendors." Her favorite part of being a Market vendor is the range of people she has met and continues to meet each week.

The Summit Vendor of the Month Award, presented by The Summit Federal Credit Union and the Friends of the Rochester Public Market, recognizes those vendors who provide the community with local, high-quality products and exemplary service.
