

The Summit Federal Credit Union

REQUIREMENTS FOR IDENTIFICATION

Listed below are the proofs of identity required to obtain membership with The Summit. For the member’s protection, The Summit requires that members provide one or more of these items with at least one of the documents having the member’s signature on it. A member must present original documents, or documents certified by the agency that issued them. The proofs provided must be either government issued or acceptable looking forms of identification that are valid/current, and must add up to 6 points. The Summit cannot accept more than one document of the same proof (for example, 3 major credit cards will be counted as only 1 credit card; 2 pay stubs will be counted as only 1 pay stub, etc.). Photocopies and documents with alteration or erasures will not be accepted. Fraudulent and altered documents will be confiscated. Presentation of a fraudulent or altered document could result in criminal prosecution.
